WAKE UP, BRISBANE!

Do you realize that the administrators of this county are elected without our aid? They therefore have no interest in our problems, and will continue to by-pass Brisbane until they realize we are a force to be considered.

All of the major problems that now confront Brisbane are determined by the San Mateo County Supervisors and these men are elected by popular vote. They are chosen by the residents of Burlingame, San Mateo and Redwood City, etc., and naturally enough have the well-fare of these communities at heart. When the county funds are distributed, the towns which have been interested enough to vote to receive primary consideration.

Here is where we are falling down. As the situation now stands, we pay county taxes on the same appraisal basis as all of the rest of San Mateo County—SO:

We are entitled to decent roads, protection of our homes and property by the county sheriff's office which we pay to help maintain, and similar benefits. We are entitled to be recognized as a rising community rapidly becoming an important part of the county which we help to support by the taxes which we pay. The only way we can assure this recognition is by VOTING. We constitute a substantial portion of the population of this county; we pay a fair portion of the taxes required for its proper administration, and the people of Brisbane MUST refuse to be too lazy, lethargic or indifferent to demand our just dues.

Here are the figures: The population of Brisbane now exceeds 4500 and has a potential voting power of approximately 2200. There are only 800 registered voters in Brisbane, of which only 400 bother to vote. How can a community of 4500 people hope to influence the administrative officers of the county in which they reside, if less than one-tenth of the people show enough interest and initiative to indicate their wishes?

Are you satisfied with only the present entrance to Brisbane?

Are you satisfied with our present sewer system?

Are you satisfied with our children's playground?

Show the supervisors of San Mateo County that we are on our toes. Show them that our list of registered voters is large enough to be a factor in a county election. Show them that we are able and willing,—and will—go to the polls at the next election to use our American Right to vote to secure the aid and consideration for which we are paying and to which we are entitled.

Mr. Ed Krampert at Phil's Fountain, 311 Visitacion Avenue, and Mrs. Cheslyn at 280 Visitacion are your registrars; GO in and register.

HOME TOWN FOCUS

Mrs. Woodrow Gotherow, 466 Sierra Pt. Rd., was honored at the Weston McIntosh home on Eldorado Ave., in the form of a layette shower. At the close of the evening refreshments were served, and Mrs. Gotherow opened the daintily wrapped gifts. Guests were: Messdames, Gene McIntosh, Gussie Rounds, Nora Lathrop, Rosemary Johnson, Irene Miller, Dot Radoff, Lyla Strassburger, Dot Pascu, Peggy Skriha, Marie Thoir, Frances Gerrad, Emma Serochi, Woodrow Gotherow and the hostess, Mrs. Alberta McIntosh.

Mr. Walter Lewellen and father-in-law, Mr. Hensen are building a new home at 486-8 Sierra Point Road. Mr. Lewellen hopes to have his wife and 2 boys with him in about a month. He works for the government in the Bureau of Mines. His wife's dad came all the way from Boise, Idaho to help him build; nice in-laws, eh wot?

Al and Bob Vanucci of the Dandy Market were guests of honor at a surprise birthday dinner party given by their mother, Mrs. Ottobini of S. F. on Sunday, February 1. Al's birthday was Saturday, January 31 and Bob's Sunday, February 1. The boys being a year and one day apart in ages, jointly shared honors. May we extend our somewhat late wishes for many happy returns of the day, Al and Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gannon, are moving into their new home on San Benito Road this week. The Gannons recently returned from New Jersey, where they were called due to the serious illness of Mr. Gannon's Mother.

A former Brisbane resident, Mr. Vince Turtureci passed away Friday evening, January 23. Deceased is survived by a wife, Ada and son Tommy of San Mateo, two daughters Mrs. James Gibbs of Oakland, and Mrs. Vincetta Salmon of Brisbane. Internment was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Some of our Brisbane residents looked in wonder at the tents on our baseball field, January 31, smoke circling upward, vague forms scurrying around in the early dawn. Mr. Grabosky holds the answer to these puzzling "goings on," and he and the Scouts tell us it was a lot of fun, camping out.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barnes and son have by now become thorough Brisbane boosters. They came here from Chicago, Ill and are now living at 325 Mendocino Street. Mr. Barnes is with United Air Lines at San Francisco Airport, at South City.

Elmo Arthurs, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Arthurs of Alvarado Street, was discharged from the U S. Army Friday, January 30, having served for one and one-half years. He celebrated his birthday the following day by attending a dinner and dance in the city with his parents and friends.

Miss Betty Pistohl is spending two weeks vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pistohl, 45 Solano Road. Betty will resume her studies at the University of California at Berkeley when the new semester begins on February 18th.

COMMENTS OF SCOUT MASTER

Putting outing in their Scouting Troop 134 had six Scouts as ushers at the Shrine East-West game. John Bollinger, Paul Bollinger, Donald Rose, Lloyd Isdahl, Fred Renner, James Chase and Scout Master Jack Grabosky, were the lucky six.

January 4th, Scouts, Cubs and Girl Scouts accompanied by Scout Master and Mrs. Grabosky, Mrs. Witson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heninzer made up a swim party of 30. We went to Crystal Plunge and had a good swim. On the way back we stopped for donuts.

Scout Meetings are held every Wednesday evening 7:30 to 9:30 at the Scout Room in the rear of the school. Parents and visitors are always welcome.
During Scout Week we would like to become acquainted with former Scouts, Scout Masters and Troop Committee men living in Brisbane.

January 18, another swim party to Crystal Plunge. Any boy or girl living in Brisbane is welcome to come to these swim parties providing they have their parents' consent and .50 cents. Every youngster should know how to swim. This is your opportunity to learn and to have good fun. Ask the Scouts and Cubs who go every second Sunday.

January 30 - A combined Cub Pack and Scout meeting was held in the school Auditorium, with many awards presented to the Cubs. Mrs. J. Chapman and Mrs. Virgil Smith were each presented with a gift of appreciation for the fine work they had done in Cubbing. They were two of the original Den Mothers when the Cub Pack was formed. The Scouts were present at this meeting to welcome into the ranks of Scouting one of their prize Cubs, Robert Gregerson who has reached his 12th year and so is eligible to become a Scout. Robert has attained every rank and award Cubbing had to offer. He was presented with his Webelos badge, by the Scout Master.

We of Scouting welcome Robert into our ranks. He has already fitted himself into the Beaver Patrol of which Danny Smith is Patrol Leader and had been assigned his duties as Patrol Scribe. Kenneth Walton received his 2nd Class pin; congratulations Kenny. We also welcomed in to Troop 134 George Tann and Anthony Souza as Tenderfoot Scouts; here's hoping that you will have lots of fun boys.

January 30-31 and February
1st. Twenth Scouts with Sr.
Patrol Leader Lloyd Isdahl and Patrol Leaders Paul Bollinger, Danny Smith and Scout Hickman had their first monthly camp of the new year right in our own front yard, the Recreation Park where many friends and parents watched them set up camp, cook their meals and really rough it. It was cold and windy but the boys made out very well; many tests were passed and new ideas tried out in preparation for the many trips we plan to take this year.
We had many visitors, especially Cubs; we even allowed a few of them to camp out with us Saturday night.

Sunday morning we took our tents down, cleaned the grounds and went home for a while.
Scouts receiving credit for camping out are; John Bollinger, Paul Bollinger, Donald Rose, Darrel Chapman, George
Tann, James Chase, Berle
Beale, Robert Bolden, Lloyd Isdahl, Danny Smith, Donald Parish, Robert Gregerson, Scott
Hickman, Charles McCarry, Bud McCarry, and Raymohd Joudry. Visitors camping with us were: Peter Jensen, George Babkirk, Dick Hoskins, Ray Villemonroy, Merle With, Red Fogleman and Robert Olsen.
February 1st - Another swim party. 25 Scouts, Cubs and Girl Scouts accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wally Delbon, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith and S. M. and Mrs. J. Grabosky left Brisbane 1:15 and reached Crystal Plunge at 1:45. Swam and played around until 3:45. On the way home we stopped for our traditional donuts which tasted delicious after a 2 hour swim

The committee of Troop 134 meets every third Wednesday evening at the fire house unless we are visiting. At the January 21st meeting which was held at Norman Brown's home in Westwood Park, S. F. These committee members were present: Chairman William Rook, Sec.-Treas. Walden Delbon, S.
M. Jack Crabosky, Joe Heinzer, Everett Parrish, Roy Hickman, Asst. S. M. Art Kennedy, Norman Brown and Ted Dangler.
Routine business was quickly finished and then we got down to a subject of interest to us:
"Would We Take Part in A Scoutorama to be held at the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco, May 13 and 14? The decision was "YES." We will enter the rope climbing and tower building contests; Bycycle and Roman chariot races. Also discussed was the formation of a carnival committee to take care of thi year's carnival. A joint meeting of Scout, Cub and Sr.

Committeemen was set for Feb.
18 at the Fire house.

ROW OVER FUNDS GRANT SCORED IN

Hickey Raps Disposition of Gas Tax Money
Row Starts over Brisbane
Plea for Second Entrance

REDWOOD CITY, Feb. 3.—County Engineer Melville A. Grant was accused as a "dictator" over disposition of $600,000 gas tax funds accruing to his department today by Supervisor Tom Hickey, South San Francisco, during a violent row at the board meeting over the proposal that San Bruno avenue in Brisbane be taken into the county's secondary road system for improvement.

It was the opening wedge in an inquiry into what expenditures are made from the several hundred thousand dollars received annually by Grant from state sources.

Brisbane civic leaders want the county to finance extension of San Bruno Avenue to an intersection with Bayshore highway south of the community, thus providing a second inlet to Brisbane, primarily for fire protection purposes.

"Are we going to take an arbitrary stand against aiding construction of this new road for a town of nearly 5,000 people?" Supervisor Hickey asked. "It will not entail a great expense, and the decision is in the laps of the board; not the county engineer."

Sees Disaster

E. H. Krampert, Brisbane contractor and merchant and another member of the delegation, declared Brisbane was the "only town in the country with one outlet," and said in the event of a disastrous fire the situation would present "a bottleneck with hundreds of people trying to get over one road. It would be a disaster."

He claimed Brisbane property owners are paying the highest taxes in the county and are entitled to consideration.

VIRGIL COMPTON LOSES LIFE

Virgil Claire Compton, Aviation Radioman Second Class, U. S. Navy, lost his life in a head-on collision on Nimitz Highway, January 19th, 1948, in Honolulu, T. H., while operating a motorcycle in line of duty for the Navy Department. Mr. Compton served in the Navy during World War No. 2, and received his discharge after V. J. Day, and soon after this, he re-enlisted in the U. S. Navy and was sent to Honolulu where the accident occurred. He was a member of Brisbane Post 473, The American Legion, and active in their program. The Navy Department has notified his parents Mr. and Mrs. Evans that the remains will be sent to the United States by the first available Transport. Upon arrival, the funeral arrangements will be handled by the S. Nieri Funeral Home, 344 Grand Ave. South San Francisco, Cal. The Internment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery; the time and date to be announced later. Mr. and Mrs. Evans, his parents, reside at 708 Humboldt Road, Brisbane, Calif.

BRISBANE POLICE DISTRICT FORMED

At a recent meeting of the County Supervisors, Brisbane was awarded a police district and the following were sworn in as temporary police commissioners:

Lester F. Bybee, Edmond H. Krampert and John Carrigan. These men will serve until the coming election when the voters will elect a new board of commissioners.

The police district will be without funds until next December and meantime a policeman must be paid out of donations as in the past.

Miss Cook, (Cookie to all her friends) who is a superb culinary artist.

For me there is no rarer thing Than, while the winter's lingering,
To taste the blessedness of Spring.

Pertinent Paragraphs:

Even if your husband can't build a fire without kerosene, he likes to think that he could provide for his family on a desert island.

There is one thing certain about a well-dressed woman; she has taken trouble. And to take trouble is to strengthen character.

A few of life's major satisfactions, even if they are occasionally disappointing; A husband, a child, a rosebush, a dog.

Mrs. H. E. Woodard sends us this delicious pair of recipes:

QUICK PARKER HOUSE ROLLS with BISCUIT MIX:

- 2/3 cup milk
 - 1 cake frsch yeast
 - 2 cups prepared Biscuit Mix
- Heat milk until just slightly warm (80 to 85 degrees); pour into mixing bowl.

Crumble yeast into milk and stir with fork until dissolved.
Add biscuit mix all at once and stir to form soft dough. Place on floured cloth-covered board and knead lightly till smooth.
Roll out to about 1/3 in. thickness. Cut rounds wiith biscuit cutter.

Spread each round with butter, then fold over just off-center so that top over-laps the bottom. Pinch ends together.
Place rolls in a lightly greased pan; cover with damp cloth and set in a warm place to rise until light, about 15 to 25 minutes.
Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) about 15 min. or until lightly browned. Cool on rack.
Makes 18 rolls.

Household Hints:

IRONING POINTER: Two press cloths—one of cotton and one of wool, used together do the best job of pressing woolen clothes. Lay the wool cloth on first, then the damp cotton sheeting. Press until the cotton cloth is dry. This method presses seems flat without making them hard and shiney

When dampening or sprinkling clothes with metal buckles, wrap the buckles in wax paper to protect the rest of the garment from rust stains.

And for attractive bookends, use pretty colored bottles filled with sand.

and a hit and run case were recorded Wednesday, February determined severity when she
